

When the earth begins to shake
We will look to our deliverer
When earthly thrones have passed away
Your kingdom has no end

Christ our King
You will reign now and forever
Christ our Lord, our reward, nothing is better
Until the day we see our Savior face to face
Jesus will be praised

When our hearts are turned away
You are good to call us back again
Beckoned home to arms of grace
Your mercy knows no end
Your mercy knows no end

Christ our King
You will reign now and forever
Christ our Lord, our reward, nothing is better
Until the day we see our Savior face to face
Jesus will be praised
Jesus will be praised

All Glory, All honor
To the King who reigns forever
Eternal, Unshakable
Is The Kingdom of our God

All Glory, All honor
To the King who reigns forever
Eternal, Unshakable
Is The Kingdom of our God

Christ our King
You will reign now and forever
Christ our Lord, our reward, nothing is better
Until the day we see our Savior face to face
Jesus will be praised
Jesus will be praised
Jesus will be praised
