

I hear Your voice in the desert
Calling the dead back to life
I hear a sound like a thunder
Calling our faith to revive
Your fire is in us
Your Spirit's alive
Your Kingdom is coming
To every nation and tribe

A New song, we will sing a new song
We know that our sin's gone
He has paid it all
O Rise up, all you weary rise up
Sing of all that God's done
He has paid it all

There's no room for silence
There's a hymn to be sung
Tell the world of deliverance
Of the battle You've won
I'll speak of Your kindness
My lips unrestrained
King Jesus is coming
On that glorious day

A new song, we will sing a new song
We know that our sin's gone
He has paid it all
O Rise up, all you weary rise up
Sing of all that God's done
He has paid it all

Flesh and bone, hearts of stone
Are coming back to life
Flesh and bone, hearts of stone
Are coming back to life
Flesh and bone, hearts of stone
See an army rise
Singing new songs
Singing new songs

A new song, we will sing a new song
We know that our sin's gone
He has paid it all
O Rise up, all you weary rise up
Sing of all that God's done
He has paid it all

Flesh and bone, hearts of stone
Are coming back to life
Flesh and bone, hearts of stone
Are coming back to life
Flesh and bone, hearts of stone
See an army rise
Singing new songs
Singing new songs
