

Child of the world and a friend to the grave
Tied to my sin, I was bound to my chains
Lost and alone until you came to save
Now there is freedom to call on your name

I am a slave no more
I am now free from what I was before
Running from darkness I walk in the light of a merciful Lord
I am a slave no more

You will deliver and you won't delay
Never withholding your love and your Grace
There's nothing I give that could earn me my place
Yet you seat me beside you and know me by name

Yet you seat me beside you and know me by name

I am a slave no more
I am now free from what I was before
Running from darkness and I walk in the light of a merciful Lord

I am a slave no more
I am now free from what I was before
Running from darkness I walk to the light of a merciful Lord
I am a slave no more

All I knew, All I gave
Never saved me Never saved me
All I was, All I did
Never raised me, Never raised me

I was dead in my sin
But you saved me Jesus saved me
I am yours now, I am free now
I am free to praise
